Accessibility Information

- Meeting rooms and dining spaces: All are accessible and have gender-inclusive, accessible washrooms nearby.
- Quiet spaces: Mount Allison’s library has a few single occupancy ‘hush booths’ without power outlets on its main floor. There are other spaces to work and read on the library’s main floor which are relatively quiet at this time of year. There are also conference rooms available if you need a quiet space to work; these are located on each floor of the Windsor residence.
